Hello and thank you for competing in the 13th annual Rocky Mountain State Games!! You joined more than 10,000 athletes who competed in one or more of our 41 different sports at 35+ different venues!

The mission of the Rocky Mountain State Games is to provide a multi-sport festival available for athletes of all ages and skill levels to compete and take part in an active, healthy lifestyle. We are so glad you chose to spend some of your summer at the Rocky Mountain State Games.

As the State Games continue to grow, our goal is to continue providing our athletes with a world class experience. Part of the way we improve and make adjustments for future years is by collecting and listening to your feedback. Please take a few minutes and complete the 2014 RMSG Athlete Survey and let us know what we did well and how we can improve. We will compile all athlete survey by Friday, August 1 so please complete the survey while it is fresh in your mind.

Photos: Photos of this year's events are available for viewing and purchasing at www.thesportscorp.zenfolio.com. Be sure to check out if your skill was captured during competition!

Social Media: Upload your videos or photos from this past weekend and be sure to tag @rmstategames (twitter) or share them on our Facebook or Instagram feed (Rocky Mountain State Games). Be sure to follow and like us to stay up to date on happenings and registration opening for the 2015 Rocky Mountain State Games!

Don't forget! The Rocky Mountain State Games are not over and we still have a whole other weekend of competition coming up on July 25-27. Registration for many sports is still open and even collected up until the day of competition! To check out weekend #2 sports and compete again, visit www.RockyMountainStateGames.org.

Additional Volunteer/Spectator Opportunity:

Note, Sports Corp is always looking for volunteers to assist with the events we put on in the Colorado Springs community. The next event coming up is the USA Pro Challenge – Stage 4 on August 21. If you are interested and available to volunteer for this event, please complete the volunteer application linked below.
