

Howzat !

Wondering if cricket is played in Colorado ? Well then wonder no more as cricket is played in Colorado, for more than 20 years now. The 2004 season of the Colorado Cricket league (CCL) is scheduled to begin in May. Currently, CCL has six member clubs that participate annually in the league and Knock-Out championships. These cricket clubs have members that are spread all around Colorado and New Mexico. These clubs operate from their offices in Denver, Boulder, Fort Collins and Colorado Springs.

If you are a cricket enthusiast looking for an opportunity to play competitive cricket and at the same time willing to have some fun, then the culturally diverse Colorado league is the place for you. Please contact the clubs listed below and feel free to join any one of the clubs that suits your needs:

Coal Creek Cricket Club

(North Denver area 303-926 0464, ttp://www.bouldercricket.org)

Denver Sluggers

(Denver area, 303-693-2635, Kannan_Alagappan@csgsystems.com)

Fort Collins Cricket Club

(Contact 303-949-9829, gs@fc.hp.com)

Littleton Cricket Club (South Denver, Midwicket@aol.com 303.570.5931)

Colorado Junior Cricket (Run by LCC)

Contact :303-290-6104

One world Cricket Club

(Denver and Colorado Springs, 720-482-7618 viyan_giri@yahoo.com)

Rocky Mountain Cricket Club (Denver, atif.siddiqi@comcast.net, 303-667-1509)